SUICIDE.

Robert M. Applegate Fires a Bullet Into His Brain

And Drops Dead In Seyler's Hardware Store, Front Street.

Mental Derangement From Long Indulgence in Liquor the Cause.
The Unfortunate Man of Good Family and Scholarly Address.

At 8:10 o'clock Wednesday evening Robert M. Applegate, of Beverly, shot himself through the head, in the store of J. Seyler & Bro., hardware merchants, of this city.

He had a few minutes before the deed entered the store, and asked one of the salesmen, Charles Moser, to show him a certain revolver that he had been looking at the day before. The clerk got the pistol out of the show case, and also handed out a box containing a few cartridges to fit the weapon. Mr. Applegate asked if the clerk could not furnish an extra box of cartridges with the revolver, and this was granted. As Moser turned to get the cartridges and wrap them up Mr. Applegate loaded the revolver and with a quick, but sure aim, fired a ball through his brain. The ball entered the right side of his head, about two inches to the rear of the lower part of the ear. Its deadly effect was instant almost, as the heart ceased beating in a few moments after the shot.

The police were summoned, as was also Coroner Willis, and the remains were carried into Fuller's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

In the clothes were found his glasses, a pouch of tobacco and a pipe, a small memorandum book and two notes, one sealed and addressed to his wife in Beverly, another open. The latter read as follows: (It bore no date.)

"It seems almost superfluous to state that my death was not caused by anyone else than myself, or that it was the result of accident.

I alone am to blame; it being my own deliberate act.

R. M. APPLEGATE.
What the gossips may say cannot concern me, as their comments will be beyond my power to know."

The revolver was a "Harrington & Richardson" and of 32-calibre. It, of course, is in the hands of the Coroner.

The cause of the suicide is plainly marked. It was whisky, the habit of drinking which possessed the man. He came to Marietta August 20th, and has been stopping at the Bellevue Hotel. He had at times been drinking heavily, Tuesday night being the occasion of his last dissipation. At the time of his death he was a sober man.

Robert Applegate was about 60 years old, and was a man of good traits when himself. He possessed a good education and a bright mind. He was a splendid accountant, and was latterly employed for a number of years by a large house in Pittsburg. He came of the Applegates of Zanesville, a family that for years was one of the foremost of that city. He leaves a wife and four children, all grown.

The remains will probably be taken to Beverly for burial.

The misery of years has been cured in a single night by the use of Doan's Ointment, a positive, never-failing remedy for Itching Piles and all similar diseases. Your dealer keeps it, or can get it for you.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Calouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep stores or house without it." Get a free trial at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

Found dead!

There is something so shocking about sudden death that the mere mention of it wrenches the nerves of sensitive people. Millions of people pray for deliverance from it. Every Sunday in every Episcopal church in the world, these words are said: "From battle, and murder and sudden death, Good Lord, deliver us." Just why sudden death should be shocking, and death after lingering disease as easy to bear, would puzzle any one to tell. It would seem that it would be more terrible to see some loved one wasting away, daily becoming weaker—daily slipping toward a death no less certain because it was slow in coming. Consumption causes more deaths than heart disease—more than cholera—more than yellow fever—more than any other disease the world has ever known. And yet people are careless about it. A man in danger of sudden death from heart disease can avoid the danger simply by keeping quiet and avoiding excitement. Consumption goes right on with its deadly work, no matter what the man does or how he conducts himself. If he doesn't take the right medicine to cure it, Consumption affects the whole body. It is a blood disease. It permeates the whole system. It shows in the lungs because the blood goes to the lungs for purification. It carries impurities there to be made pure. If there is too much impurity, the lungs are over-worked—overloaded—the impurity stops there. The germs of disease stop there. They develop and multiply and then consumption takes definite form. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, lingering coughs, throat and bronchial diseases if it is taken according to directions. Get it at drug stores; learn about it in Dr. Pierce's great 1008 page work, "Common Sense Medical Advice," sent FREE on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. It contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, is a veritable medical library, complete in every volume. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden sickness or accidents. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
